

Jean Bourgain (School of Mathematics, Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton, NJ, USA)

New developments in arithmetic combinatorics

Abstract: We survey various forms of the so-called 'sum-product phenomenon', in particular in finite fields, as well as the applications to exponential sums and the spectral theory of Hecke operators.